PLATOSANAT

Merz 3.000 – Gelecek Kolajdır! sergisi çağdaş sanat disiplini içinde kolajın gücünü ve önemini kabul eden karma bir sergidir. Sergi, farklı kolaj yöntemlerini sanatsal üretim metodu olarak kullanan 9 farklı sanatçının eserlerine yer vererek, kolajın çağdaş sanatçılar için statükosunu ve anlamını tartışıyor. Plato Sanat'taki sergimizin adı, erken dönem kolaj sanatçısı Kurt Schwitters ve onun kendisi için inşa ettiği yaşam alanı olan Merzbau' suna (1922 -1942) gönderme yapmaktadır. Serginin tasarımı ise, dışavurumcu ve kübistik uzamsal müdahaleler yoluyla montaja benzer deneysel bir mekan olan Merzbau'ya olan minnettarlığı ifade etmektedir. Ayrıca, mekanın tasarımında kolajın ve montajın biçimsel kurallarına başvurulduğundan sergi, klasik "beyaz kübün" ötesine geçen alternatif bir deneyimi sunar. Serginin parçalar halindeki bu yapısı sayesinde eserler, mekan ve ziyaretçiler, fikirlerin, yorumların ve deneyimlerin tümünün birbiriyle bağlantılı olduğu geniş ve tek bir kolajın evreni haline gelir.

Merz 3.000 – The Future is a Collage recognizes the power and importance of collage for contemporary art. Showing various artists with different notions of collage, the exhibition discusses its status quo and its meaning for contemporary artists. The title of our exhibition at Plato Sanat is homage to the early collage artist Kurt Schwitters, and his Merzbau (1922 – 1942), an installation-like experimental space that deconstructed the common minimal architectural form of an interior through expressive and cubistic spatial interventions. The exhibition design at Plato Sanat pays tribute to the Merzbau. It also proposes an alternative spatial experience which goes beyond the classic white cube, as it applies formal rules of collage and assemblage to the interior design of the exhibition space. In the end, due to the fragmental structure of the exhibition itself, works, space elements and visitors form one large all-over-collage, where everything is linked with each other, and so becomes one pluralistic universe of ideas, comments, and experiences.
